CNN Anchor Miles O'Brien To Be Special Guest at Holt Booth
During National Middle Schools Conference

ATLANTA, Georgia – November 3, 2003 – Miles O'Brien will be a special guest at the display booth of Holt, Rinehart and Winston during the National Middle Schools Association (NMSA) conference in Atlanta on November 7 from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

What: Miles O'Brien to sign autographs and greet conference-goers at the Holt, Rinehart and Winston display booth #304.

When: Friday, November 7, 2003 from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m.

Where: National Middle Schools Conference Exhibit Hall booth #304 at the Atlanta Convention Center.

Miles O'Brien is a news anchor for CNN/U.S. and the network's space correspondent. Based in CNN's world headquarters in Atlanta, O'Brien co-anchors the weekday newscast Live From with Kyra Phillips. He is the former anchor for the newscasts CNN Saturday Morning and CNN Sunday Morning as well the former primetime co-anchor of CNN Headline News.

Holt has an exclusive partnership with CNN to deliver CNN Student News as a direct link to Holt online textbooks and content. Educators use CNN Student News in their classrooms for the news of the day, as well as segments that encourage student participation. Holt is the only major textbook company to include current events research tools online and to have this partnership.

In an exclusive arrangement at the NMSA Conference, Holt will also give away tickets for CNN Studio Tours at the CNN Center. Drawings will be held several times during each day.
